

BEYOND BOOKS

NEWS, LITERACY AND DEMOCRACY

IN AMERICA'S LIBRARIES . . .

A FREE TOWN MEETING DISCUSSION

Thursday, April 7, 7:00 p.m.

Cambridge Public Library

(Main
Broadway Branch)

IDEAS, DIALOG, BREAKOUTS

For three centuries, in American communities, two institutions have uniquely marked a commitment to participatory democracy, knowledge and open inquiry — our libraries and our free press.

HELP CONSIDER: How can they work together?

FEATURING:

John
Nichols

*Co-Founder,
FreePress.net +
columnist
The Nation*

Join a conversation with participants in the “Beyond Books” symposium at the MIT Center for Future Civic Media

INFO: <http://www.blibionews.org>

LOCATION: Cambridge [Mass.] Public Library, 449 Broadway
Sponsored by the library, MIT C4FCM, Journalism That Matters and the New England News Forum